WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 31, 1878.

NEWGATE PRISON .- In a few years from now visitors to the English metropolis will miss many things which have hitherto been considered attractions, and which they lost no opportunity of seeing. Temple Bar, with its antiquarian associations, has been removed, and now Newgate prison, which has stood for eight centuries, is to be pulled down to give place to new buildings. At first simply a tower appended to the gate which gave it a name, it was gradually added to, until at last it became the gloomy looking structure which frowns down on the busy city streets. In the days of Jack Shepard, who escaped twice from it, it was filed with all classes of criminals, and was a hotbed of vice and immorality. Debtors, under the barbarious law which punished debt by imprisonment, were kept there for years, and some of the most eminent men in English history were at intervals immured within its walls. Daniel Defoe, only known to the young as the author of "Robinson Crusoe," was a political prisoner there, and in the year 1672 William Penn was confined in it for street preaching. Its walls, if they could speak, could tell a sad history of cruelty and crime, and it is probably more in keeping with the humane ideas of modern times that it should give place to monuments of civilization.

The Conservative Congressional Con-vention of the 8th District.

The Conservative Convention for nominating a candidate of the Conservative party to represent the 8th Congressional District in the United States Congress, will be held in the city of Alexandria, on Wednesday, August 28th, 1878, at 12 m. The basis of representation will be one delegate and one alternate to every one hundred votes and fractions of one hundred exceeding tifty, cast for Tilden and Hendricks in the last Presidential election, to be appointed in such manner as the county and city committees may prescribe for themselves.

ICE CREAM, SODA WATER, &c.

ICE CREAM My Ice Cream Manufactory, one of the largest in Virginia, still continues to supply private customers, Sunday schools, excursions, picnics, fairs, festivals and associations, as well as the trade, with that SUPERIOR CREAM that has made a name in this community, and is known everywhere as BRENGLE'S ICE CREAM. I could easily reduce its price by lowering its quality, but good cream, of fresh, pure, wholesome ingredients, cannot be furnished at a less price than I serve it. Of course, I could "grade my cream by the price," but my cream would lose the good name that years of fair dealing have won for it. I ask that persons abroad ordering 'Brengle's Cream' from third parties will assure themselves that the cream sent is certainly from my establishment. I warrant my cream, and do not wish that inferior cream, sent out as mine, may injure its reputation. It is my aim to furnish the BEST CREAM IN AMERICA, and my customers are satisfied that I do so. je 3-tf HENRY BRENGLE.
